This basic source for identification of U.S. manufacturers is arranged by product in a large multi-volume set. Includes: Products & services, Company profiles and Catalog file. Astro Bono is a little girl who loves satellites. She finds out that she has a very special gift, "The Gift Of The Stars" and that this gift not only connects her to outer space, but it protect everything in outer space. Through her adventures she learns about the many important roles played by people who work is outer space! On these space adventures, she also gets to use her gift to solve Africa's space problems. Do you know what satellites are and how very important they are? They are launched into space by scientists and engineers and they help us with many different things. But what happens to old satellites that are broken and don't work anymore? They become junk, space junk! Astro Bono's first adventure takes her on a magical journey to learn about space junk!
