From the "New York Times" bestselling author of the Nightwalkers and Shadowdwellers series, "Seduce Me in Dreams" begins a sexy new futuristic series featuring an elite group of military heroes. Contains mature themes. Mimi's mother is the German daughter of a reluctant Third Reich infantry conscript. Her father is the Hungarian Jewish son of concentration camp survivors. Haunted by ghosts from their ravaged European past, the family settles in the arcadia of a Midwestern American suburb where, no matter what they do, they will never quite fit in. In Eva Marer's posthumous novel, the eerily sensitive child narrator's navigation of three cultures American, German and Hungarian is complicated by her capacity to remember things she herself never lived. Among Marer's papers was this description of the book: "History demands that we never forget, and yet we have forgotten. But some remember what they have never seen. This is the conundrum faced by the novel's seven-year-old protagonist, Mimi, who, as the narrative opens, is unable even to articulate her conflict: What is it to live a memory that is not your own?" In a strikingly original take on the classic immigrant tale, love infuses history in such a way that, rather than being blunted or subdued with time, it takes on new life in the febrile mind of a overly imaginative child whose impassioned empathy for her father makes her feel his past suffering even more fervently than her own. New York Times bestselling author Eric Jerome Dickey, "one of the most successful Black authors of the last quarter-century"* explores the depths of desire in this sensual blockbuster. Born in Trinidad and living in Atlanta after a relationship gone bad, Nia Simone Bijou is an ambitious writer who has it all. She will open herself up to experiences she never dared before. And as her fantasies begin to spin out of control, she'll discover the unexpected price of the extreme. *The New York Times With the elfin city of Elqaneve decimated, her father missing, and Shadow Wing obtaining another spirit seal, Menolly D'Artigo works to thwart daemon Lowestar Radcliff's supernatural corporate power grab. In a desert lab, human subjects are experimented on with drugs that dial up their desire in this erotic story from the New York Times – bestselling author. All Amara knows is that the complete lack of freedom, the endless experiments and personal indignities have tested the limits of her sanity. But nothing prepares her for being locked away—naked—with a sexy ex-cop . . . The department shrink always told Nick Gregory he had a hero complex that was going to get him killed one day, or worse. This is definitely worse. Even drugged so that his most basic animal instincts are uncontrollable, he is driven to protect the beautiful female with whom he's supposed to mate. One way or another, he will escape this hell . . . and take her with him. Previously published in Nocturnal Praise for the writing of Jacquelyn Frank "A fresh new voice, a stunning new talent.
